For Immediate Release:

Mainline Information Systems Ranks 44 on Statewide List and 52 in Government Integrators List

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Mainline Information Systems achieved a ranking of 44 on Florida Trend's Florida Private 200 list and a ranking of 52 on VARBusiness' Government Integrators List.

"We are proud to be recognized in these lists," said Rick Kearney, President and CEO of Mainline. "Our dedication to the customers and industries we serve is a key element to our success. Furthermore, these rankings are a direct result of our solid, 18-year partnership with IBM, and our commitment to providing technology solutions that meet the needs of our customers."

Florida Trend ranks private companies headquartered in Florida in order from 1 to 200, with number 1 being the private company reporting the highest revenue for 2006. The complete list was published in the May 2007 issue of Florida Trend magazine and can be viewed here.

In VarBusiness' Government Integrators List, where Mainline ranked 52, solution providers are ranked on outstanding achievements and rapid-fire growth. According to VARBusiness, the GovernmentVAR 100, now in its fourth year, is the definitive list of the top federal, state, local and education solution providers and integrators. The ranking is by gross government revenue for IT products and services. To read more on the GovernmentVAR 100 ranking, visit their site online.
