BPO Management Services and Mainline Partner To Deliver Full Service IT Outsourcing

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – BPO Management Services' IT Outsourcing services unit and Mainline Information Systems announced their new partnership to provide managed hosting and co-location services, delivering complete datacenter solutions.

By partnering together, BPO Management Services (BPOMS) and Mainline can deliver flexible, customized disaster recovery, managed hosting and co-location hosting solutions for mainframes, open systems, AS/400 iSeries and mid-range servers.

"Today's business environment demands that IT departments do more, in less time, with fewer resources," explained Marion Butler, Hosting Solutions Practice Manager for Mainline. "Our partnership with BPO Management Services allows us to expand our service offerings for our customers, giving them the comprehensive datacenter out-sourcing solutions they need to effectively run their businesses. With a solid record in excellent customer support, BPO Management Services is the right hosting solution partner for Mainline. The combination of our expertise means customers will have the best hosted solutions available on the market."

"BPO Management's primary mission is to provide customers the best on-going solutions, at the highest service levels and competitive pricing," said Patrick Dolan, Chairman and CEO. "We are pleased to be partnering with Mainline. As an IBM Premier Business Partner and technology solution leader across the entire IBM server and storage product lines, their knowledge base complements ours, enabling us both to better serve and empower our customers for business success."
