For Immediate Release:

Mainline Information Systems Ranks 207
Among Top 250 GSA Vendors

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. – Mainline Information Systems, an IBM Premier Business Partner, was ranked number 207 among the top 250 Government Services Administration's list of approved vendors. The report data was compiled by FedSources and is based on sales reports for the GSA federal supply schedules for fiscal year 2007.

This ranking is Mainline's first appearance on the list, recognizing the company's efforts in developing their federal solutions practice. "At Mainline, we have established an experienced federal team that understands the needs and operations of the federal government," stated Jay West, Director of Sales for Mainline's federal practice. "With a dedicated team of professionals focused on serving the technology needs of federal agencies, Mainline operates as an extension of IBM's federal team, providing comprehensive infrastructure technology and application solutions from IBM and leading ISVs. This enables Mainline to deliver cost-effective, high-performance solutions, in the timeliest manner."
